

Greatest Brit lived here

The former family home of Sir Winston Churchill on Eccleston Square, Pimlico, has been updated in a recent high-specification refurbishment. Now for £3000 per week you can live at the past residence of the man voted the Greatest Briton of all time in a BBC poll. Accommodation at this historic four-bedroom property includes a reception room, formal dining room, separate family dining room, and games room. The master bedroom has an en suite bathroom and dressing area, and one of the other bedrooms has en suite facilities leading to outside space. There's also a family bathroom, study, and two outside terraces.

Churchill moved to Eccleston Square, south of Victoria station, in 1909, six months after marrying Clementine Hozier. They lived here with their expanding family before moving to Chartwell in 1922.
